HARLEM RACING.

With all sails set the barque of racing cut the billows at Harlem yesterday. True, she was somewhat light, but the passengers the more greatly enjoyed the voyage because of the shifting of the ballast. The crowd was large considering that it was "wash day" and the same twenty bookmakers plied their trade in the same gentlemanly fashion. The weather was perfect. The track looked to be dry and smooth enough on the homestretch, but the going was heavy, the hoofs sinking into a soggy soil underneath and especially was this the case on the far turn where there are traces of quicksand. "Scratching" did no injury to the card save in the case of Espionage.

A delay of some thirty-five minutes at the post in the first race was largely due to the refusal of Refugee to join his horses. There were many breakaways but at these no horse ran far. It looked as if a start was rendered impossible on one occasion by the failure of the machinery of the barrier to work smoothly. Refugee was practically left at the post. Fred Jones got off in front, but was quickly outrun by Our Hope and Red Gidd. At the far turn Grey John, who had been touted as sure to win at his first start, skipped past all the others, and when he showed clear by three lengths three-eighths from home the grandstand rang with the cheers of his supporters. The leader maintained his marked advantage until at the last eighth post he stopped and began to swerve. An instant later as Mary Kinsella came up on the inside, Grey John bumped her, and she exchanged positions with him, as he darted towards the inside fence. The interference cost Mary Kinsella the race as Roger B., who had rated along and ran third, into the home stretch got past her before she recovered her stride and beat her to the wire. Sugar Cane was a fair third. Our Hope ran prominently for a time. The sharpshooters winged the bookies as the horses delayed the start, and backed Roger B. from 4 down to 2½ to 1, the old gelding being certain to race, even should there be a hundred breakaways.

Winslow was plumped on by figure players on the strength of his remarkable performance at his last start, they reasoning that any horse that could come from so far behind must be a wonderful animal. Such men were greatly dissatisfied with the race shown by Barrett's horse yesterday, he apparently lying off up the backstretch and then whipping into the homestretch still far in the rear of the leaders. This kind of "handicapper" is greatly at fault in his calculations, as any man will fall short that only pays attention to cold figures. Winslow is not a fast horse but a very game one. On Friday last he gained so greatly over the others simply because he plugged along at an even rate of speed and as the animals in front stopped to nothing he still kept on. Yesterday he should have been a 20 to 1 shot as he usually is when the track is good. The probability is that he can run nearly as fast in a swamp as on a cinder path.

The second race was another of the kind where the horses first and second at the final sixteenth do not finish one, two, three. To a good start made at the second attempt Croesus was slightly in front. Pete Kitchen took the lead at the turn, the horses going wide with the exception of Nannie L's Sister, taken in next the rails, and so beaten at once. In second position ran Croesus closely followed by Alvarado II. and Bridgeton. Close order for all except Winslow, Pete Kitchen and Nannie L's Sister at the middle of the upper turn, where Tonto was in front, Alvarado II. next. So to the last eight, where Double Dummy, Bridgeton and Croesus came up together and ran home nearly locked in one of the prettiest of finishes, the judge's decision being necessary to settle the question in the minds of the grandstand people as to which horse had won.

Survivor was backed on his class from 8 to 5 down to even money, and he delivered the goods in fine shape never being in difficulty. To a good start Rio Chico, Etta P. and Prince McClurg showed in the front rank, but the two last named were weeded out in the first quarter reaching which Falomacita led by two open lengths—Rio Chico, Survivor and Capsicum forming the next division—all others already beaten. Survivor caught and passed Falomacita at the last eighth, and the latter, dying off, gradually finished just behind Rio Chico, who had a tight fit with Capsicum for the place. La Josephine was near Falomacita and the others—bar Blue Lick, Etta P. and Lemoon, beaten off—ran a creditable race.

Tony Licalzi having the reputation of starting a horse fit to race, Al Fresco was by the public made the favorite at even money, although the colt has not performed for some weeks. The Devil's price of 6 to 5 was too tempting, however, to the horsemen in the light of his last out, and a rally all along the line sent their choice to the post at 9 to 10, Al Fresco advancing to 7 to 5. It may be said that Licalzi's colt was never in it, as when Her Favor and The Devil raced paired in front up the backstretch Al Fresco at the half mile ground was having hard work to beat the 100 to 1 shot, Muskadine, and soon succumbing, finished pulled up, "absolutely," and many lengths in the rear, a happening which hurt the pencilers, as a sucker will always play at "8 to 5 to show" anything on four legs in a four horse race. Her Favor's "7 to 5 place" did not mend matters. The Devil raced away from Rodegap's filly entering the straight and won away off. Muskadine at the last eighth looked to be dangerous for place.

"History repeats itself" was exemplified when Hardy Pardee in the center, Harry Nutter on the inside and Mr. Johnson on the outside drove in from the last furlong alongside and interlocked as in the case of Modesty, Bob Cook and Kosciuszko in their memorable finish for the American Derby of 1884. But this latter day tri equirate of more moderate pretensions than their predecessors still furnished by far the greater contest as they hooked up soon after the turn for home and therefore kept at one another for nearly a quarter of a mile. Sea Lion, the favorite, had taken command at flag fall and Hardy Pardee was lapped on the first three eighths. Here Harry Nutter joined the flying pair and rounding the upper turn the three raced abreast, Mr. Johnson an open length behind Sun God, the other starter, never having been in the hunt. Entering the homestretch Sea Lion was outrun by Harry Nutter and Hardy Pardee. The first-named was in the center of the track, Applegate's colt next outside. In making the upper turn Joe Hill, on Mr. Johnson, had moved up closely to the leaders, and he made his run on the extreme outside—a fatal mistake, as Delong's horse here showed to have the speed of the party, and if trailed to the straight and taken down the track's center he must have won. So that when Harry Nutter came out for the path he shoved Hardy Pardee over onto Mr. Johnson. The run in was the most exciting bit of racing ever witnessed by the writer. First one head showed in front, then another. Amid great cheering the horses ran past the judges, and the numbers went up quickly. Hardy Pardee was placed first, Harry Nutter second, Mr. Johnson third. After questioning all the jockeys in the race

Colonel Clark disqualified Harry Nutter, the testimony showing that not only did Rose, his jockey, hit Everett, on Hardy Pardee, with his whip, but also fouled Sea Lion at the entry to the homestretch. Rose was suspended indefinitely.

Diggs, well ridden by Holden, came from the rear in the home stretch and with something like an old time flight of speed, beat Marzella close in, she having led all the way. Warren Point was prominent the first part of the journey, but died off and Good Friend got the show money from Cherryflame and St. Alfonses D., who were close up. Mr. Dwyer's work was exceptionally good and the delay in the first race could not have been obviated except by leaving Refugee at the post after giving each horse three trials.

Fremont Sloan, who spent Sunday at Cedar Lake, Ind., with "Little Barney" and a few of the boys, said that Ruskin's injury Saturday was not serious: the horse being jumped on, an old wound was reopened, and naturally Mr. Paget's horse gave it up.

Starter J. F. Caldwell was at Harlem yesterday looking hale and hearty. He is on his way from New York city to San Francisco, for which point he will leave Thursday next.

The Milwaukee sports were at Harlem yesterday: got some of the money, and enjoyed themselves.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The thirteen-day autumn meeting of the Westchester Racing Association that begins at Morris Park October 1, and continues four days a week, Mondays and Fridays being omitted, until October 22, is rich in stake features. Opening day has the Nursery, Jerome, Manhattan and October Hurdle Handicap; October 4, the Hurricane and Belle Meade; October 6, the Fairview and Bronx; October 8, Rancho del Paso, Morris Park Special and October Steeplechase; October 11, Silver Brook and Dixiana; October 13, the Hunter and Westchester Handicaps; October 15, the Champagne, Municipal and Autumn Hurdle Handicaps; October 18, the Castleton and McGrathiana; October 20, the Ramapo and Fordham Handicaps, and closing day, the White Plains, Morris Park and Autumn Steeplechase Handicaps.

There was a match race at Newport yesterday morning decidedly out of the ordinary, and it created much amusement. "Texas" Smith was working a two-year-old colt that at no time had ever promised to be a racehorse. J. T. Stewart was doing the same with a two-year-old filly of the equal class and promise to Smith's colt. The two owners began to talk about the lack of ability of their respective animals, and finally agreed to run a five furlong match race, and John Walsh was appointed the judge. Stewart and Smith then took their jockeys aside and instructed them how to ride. It so happened that both owners told the lads to pull and the latter obeyed with a will. The two-year-olds had not run a hundred yards before both lads began to saw the heads off their mounts. The race degenerated into a walk and the lads grinned at each other as they said, simultaneously: "I was told to pull."

Smith, who was standing by Stewart's side near the finish line, seeing that there was no choice between the bad youngsters, said to the latter:

"I'll sell my colt for $2."

"He's mine," answered Stewart, as he handed over the money.

"Now I'm even," Smith said as he pocketed the $2. "Stewart once sold me a watch that would not run, and I have saddled on to him a colt that will do nothing but eat and sleep."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

TURF CONGRESS RELIEF CASES.

Subsequent to the meeting of the Turf Congress last Wednesday the Committee on Relief, to which various applications were referred, took action that is thus detailed in the Cincinnati Enquirer:

"The Committee on Relief of the Turf Congress, composed of Judge Rees, Alec Labold, Judge Tarlton and Ed Hopper, reinstated the filly Mirth, and she is now eligible to start on Congress tracks. Mirth is owned by Bud Meehan, well-known to western turf followers. Last year he bought Mirth from Ed Corrigan and took her to Fort Erie to race. She had not been registered, and under the Jockey Club rules Meehan was compelled to register and change her name to Sister Alice. The changing of the name barred her from starting on Turf Congress tracks. The case was discussed by the Board of Appeals, who sent it back to the Congress. The latter re-sent it to the Committee on Relief, and the decision was that Mirth will be permitted to start, and must be entered as Sister Alice, formerly Mirth. The decision is a just one, as the changing of the name was not done for the purpose of fraud, but was done by order of the Jockey Club.

"The Committee of Relief also acted upon the other cases that had been referred to it. The request of Mrs. Casper Lischer that the horse, Vengeance, be reinstated was not granted. Vengeance was used as a ringer at Detroit under the name of Blucher. Mrs. Lischer claimed that her husband, who has since died, was not implicated in the job, but inasmuch as he had leased the horse to the parties by whom he was used for ringing purposes, the committee held that he had been equally guilty with the jobbers, and accordingly, as stated, refused to reinstate the horse.

"A peculiar case that came up for consideration was the claim of E. S. Gardner & Son against the Washington Park Jockey Club. The Gardners entered their mare White Frost in a race at the recent big Chicago meeting for which an entrance fee was charged. Only four horses entered, and as some of them were scratched out the race was declared off and a new race made up and substituted. The other three horses went into the new race, but White Frost did not. The Gardners demanded back the money they had paid as entrance fee, but Secretary Howard refused to return it on the ground that the club had not declared the race off, but the owners, by scratching out, and that White Frost could have gone into the new race. The committee held that the Washington Park Club could not force an owner to enter a race, and ordered that association to refund to Gardner & Son the entrance fee in question.

"Jockey C. Clay, who was to all intents and purposes ruled off at the recent St. Louis meeting, had in an application for a removal of his disabilities. The committee did not waste much time over it, but simply referred it back to the St. Louis Jockey Club officials. As Judge Murphy and his associates were convinced at the time they took action in the case of Clay that they had caught that young man, whose peculiar exhibition on Sir Ebony in a race here last spring is still fresh in memory, 'with the goods on him,' it is reasonable to suppose that he will have some trouble in getting up again.

"The application for reinstatement of T. H. Cooke, who was ruled off at Frisco for fraud in a claiming race, was referred to the Committee of Appeals, that may be appointed by President Montgomery."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mr. James Galway has decided to sell all the horses he has in training. The animals will be put up at public sale, at the coming Morris Park meeting. Mr. Galway will not retire from the turf, however, as he has a number of promising yearlings at his farm that Trainer Elmore will get ready for next year's racing.

Growing disgusted because Joe Shelby was repeatedly beaten in races that he apparently should have won, Owner Bob Tucker sold him for $100 to R. Rome and for his enterprise was rewarded by seeing the colt win his first race for his new owner.

Charles Patterson says the eastern 2-year-olds are a bad lot, Martimas being the best apparently. He accounts for Jean Beraud's loss of form from the fact that the colt was turned out for a couple of weeks and then brought back into training. It was then impossible to get him back to his former condition.

Winner—Ch. f, by Argyle—Cuisse Bright. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next three were in a hard drive. Spinnaker at too hot a pace for herself and stopped at the turn for home. Annie Oldfield has gone back. Esther R closed strong. Sweet Cream swerved all over the stretch. It was a very tight fit between Spinnaker and Miss C for the place.

Brightie S, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Spinnaker, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Miss C, show, to 5.

Winner—Ch. f, by Julien—Alice C. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lecelia outclassed the field. She is a good filly and can beat better fields than this. Preliminary was a false alarm and is of little account; neither is Custance. Ollie J showed great improvement.

Lecelia, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Ollie J, place, 12 to 1; show, 6 to 1. Custance, show, even.

Winner—B. f, by Deceiver—Sister Monica. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Cecil tired badly. It was the first time Evaline got a proper ride at the meeting. She was kept well up within striking distance and came away with ease when ready. Pop Dixon improved with a good rider. Dawn was speedy for six furlongs. Dutch Bard could not raise a gallop.

Scratched—Gage, 93; Blacking Brush, 102; Flop, 105.

Overweights—Pop Dixon, 3 pounds; Mitt Boyken, 24; Dawn, 2.

Winner—Ch. c, by St. Blaise—Susquehanna. Post 2 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving hard. Bill Powell fell at the five furlong ground, and What Next stumbled over him. Great Bend, although he saved ground on the turn for home, was staggering and had to be urged to the last ounce. Loving Cup was carried wide into the stretch by Conan Doyle and would have won but for that.

Scratched—Alleviate, 102; Dave S., 107; Performance, 107.

Winner—Ch. g, by Sobranje—Pleased. Post 20 minutes. Start fair. Won driving hard; second, third and fourth doing their best.

Roger B and Mary Kinsella were most saved during the long delay at the post. The former was nicely ridden throughout and came from a long way back in the stretch. Riders reversed Mary Kinsella would have won. Sheppard was of little or no help to her when the pinch came. On the other hand, the boy on Roger B finished with power. Sugar Cane made up a lot of ground after those in front tired. Take note of Grey John for Hawthorne where there is no recall flag. He was prominent in all breakaways and when the barrier arose was practically left. The turn of speed he showed was phenomenal and ridden with more judgment he might have won from where he got away. As it was, Newcom pumped him out the first three furlongs. Our Hope and Fred Broens retired together. Both were much used at the post.

Scratched—Pitfall, 104; Exquisite, 98.

Overweights—Roger B, 2 pounds; Fred Broens, 2.

Roger B, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Mary Kinsella, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Sugar Cane, show, 10 to 1.

8689 SECOND RACE—1-16 Miles. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g, by Alarm or Pardee—Meadow Lark. Post 2 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving to the limit. It was a pretty finish.

Double Dummy won because Beauchamp had sense enough to sit still and outflank Vancamp at the end. The latter's ride though was a marked improvement over the one he put up on Bridgeton, the horse's last previous start. The judges questioned the ride on Bridgeton and his performance the last time out. Croesus was running strongest at the finish and would have won in a few more strides. He is a slow beginner and McD made did not make his move soon enough. Tonto looked a winner on the far turn but could not stand the pressure when the pinch came. Winslow, contrary to his usual way of running, made a strong bid and then stopped. Alvarado II. was on the outside all the way and nowhere near ran his race. Nannie L's Sister was eased up in the stretch.

Winner—Ch. h. by Grenada—Long Girl.
Start straggling. Headlight was lucky and well handled. He is a good looker but is not raced consistently. Kilt was favored by a good ride and was lucky. Blarneystone was probably the best. He was shut off at the start and closed strong. Lord Zeni quit badly. Lady Marian should have won as the race was run but suffered in the stretch from weak riding. Woodbird ran well. Roysterer was overweighted, had very bad luck and took the long route. Maxello had no chance at the start. Watch him. He looks good.
Scratched—Imperator, 125; Ruby Lips, 119; Buffoon, 116; Salaire, 100.
Headlight, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Kilt, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Blarneystone, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. g. by Hindoo—Ben-Ma-Chree.
Start fair. Won driving. Ben Ronald was the best and perfectly handled. Estaca ran his race. Spencer got the best results he was capable of out of the horse. Nosey, off slowly, took the long route and can do better. The Winner stopped unaccountably in the stretch. He had plenty of speed. Knight of the Garter closed strong and is good. Double Quick was short.
Scratched—Mount Washington, 103; Prime Minister, 106; Fonsavannah, 102.

Winner—B. f. by Kingston—Lady Stylites.
Start straggling. Won handily. Satin Slipper, poorly handled, got away slowly and was best at the weights. Armament got a flying start. He was a good horse and liked the track which was hard and fast, but wet underneath. Diminutive, outrun the first part, turned wide and was closing fast at the end. She was sore in her preliminary. Cambrian had no excuses. He quit at the end. So did Hapsburg and Onondaga's Pride. Duke of Middleburg was off badly and not persevered with. Duke of Baden is out of form or a bad horse.
Scratched—Mr. Philizy, 97; Handcuff, 97; Lady Lindsay, 95.
Satin Slipper, place, 7 to 10. Armament, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Diminutive, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Tyrant—Redworth Rose.
Start straggling. Won easily. Mark Miles got a flying start and can beat better ones. The Burlington Route was lucky and liked the going. Manlius was off badly. He is a slow beginner and closed up a lot of ground, and is a game one that will bear watching. Dr. Parker is getting good. He was short. He likes mud and will do soon. Chappaqua closed fast. So did Godfrey and Neuberger. Kensington had small chance with his ride. The others were out of it at the start. Ordeal was closing fast at the end.
Scratched—Elbie Ainslie, 109.
Mark Miles, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. The Burlington Route, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Manlius, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Onondaga—Bessie Hinckley.
Start good. Won easily. George Keene was easily the best at the weights. He was perfectly handled and liked the going. He is likely to be a crackerjack under his present trainer. Macy ran his race, but could never concede the weight. He stopped some at the end. Whistling Con ran the best race of his career and was finely ridden. White Frost was a good mare today, but the weight overburdened her.

Post 3 minutes. Start bad. It was a driving finish. Rey Salazar swung to the outside in the stretch and finished strong. He got up in the last stride. Valentine rode a weak finish on Loyal Prince. Seidenbach had plenty of speed the first part, but tired in the final furlong. The field was badly strung out at the start. Seidenbach was off running and Mamie Callan was almost left. Raymond F closed a big gap at the end.
